Dated: 22/6/2021

ORDER

Appointment of Self Registration Dealers as Special Registering Authority under Rule 34 of DMVR, 1993 to issue Temporary Registration Certificate of New non-transport vehicles sold from their outlets.

In exercise of powers granted under Rule 34 of DMVR, 1993, the self registration dealers of GNCTD are hereby appointed to act as special registering authority under the said rule to issue temporary registration of new non-transport vehicles sold from their outlets. The conditions prescribed in Rule 34 of DMVR shall be duly complied with by these authorities which are as under:

- i. A temporary certificate of registration or a temporary registration mark shall not be issued, except in respect of a vehicle which has not previously been registered under the Motor Vehicles Act.
- ii. Every application for a temporary certificate of registration shall be in writing and shall indicate the district or place where the vehicle is intended to be produced for permanent registration. It shall be supported by a certificate from the Special Registering Authority from whom the vehicle has been purchased to the effect that it has been sold to the applicant on the day when the certificate is signed.
- iii. On presentation of the application with its accompanying certificate, Self Registration Dealers empowered above, may issue a temporary certificate of registration in Form CR Tem. Foil A of this Form shall be handed over to the applicant. If the place in which it is intended permanently to register the vehicle is in India, Foil B shall be dispatched immediately to the registering authority of the district in which it is to be registered. In other cases Foil B shall be dealt with according to such directions as may be issued by the Commissioner from time to time. The counterfoil together with the application and its accompanying certificate shall be kept on record by the authority issuing the certificate, and in the case of certificate granted by Self Registration Dealers, shall be exhibited for the inspection of the registering authority. The counterfoil with the connecting application and certificates shall be preserved for a period of not less than twelve months from the date of issue.
- iv. In the case of vehicles intended to be permanently registered in any other State or Union Territory of India, the registering authority on receiving Foil B under the preceding sub-rule shall forthwith send an acknowledgment to the authority which issued it and that authority shall attach the acknowledgment to the authority which issued it and that authority shall attach the acknowledgment to the counterfoil.

- v. The records maintained under sub-rule (4) of Rule 34 of DMVR, 1993, by Special self registration dealers, shall be open to inspection at all reasonable times by any police officer not below the rank of sub-inspector or any officer of the Transport Department, if so empowered by the Commissioner.
- vi. A temporary certificate of registration shall not be valid for more than one month.
- vii. An authority issuing a temporary certificate of registration shall at the same time assign to the vehicle a distinguishing mark, to be displayed on in the manner prescribed for distinguishing marks assigned under section 43 of the Act, the letters and figures composing the marks being in red on yellow ground. The designation and address of the Self Registering Dealer shall also be printed in small letters alongwith the lower edge of each plate.
- viii. To enable Self Registration Dealers empowered under this rule to fulfill the requirements of provisions of DMVR, 1993, the zonal MLOs shall allocate to each Self registration dealer a block of registration marks.
- ix. The temporary registration fee in respect of all vehicles shall be as per order of the Transport Department issued from time to time.
- x. The Registering Authority/Alternate Registering Authority of self registration dealer shall be competent to sign the temporary certificate of registration and no certificate signed on behalf of the Self Registration Dealer/Special Registering Authority by any other person shall be valid.
